Molly Wee (Mullagh Bui) is Irish for "yellow hill"! Located in County Cavan, 14 miles west of Cavan Town, it was the location of the Reilly family home and farm.

The Molly Wee Pub and Restaurant was established in 1980 on the corner of 30th Street and Eight Avenue.

For over 30 years it has been a fixture of New York City. Like its namesake in Ireland, The Molly Wee offers both visitors and regulars a gathering place to enjoy friendly conversation, great food, drink and "mighty craic".

Located one block from
Madison Square Garden & Penn Station
